

Play with words

A. Fill in the blanks with words from the box to make suitable word pairs.

1. Salt and Pepper

2. pen and paper

3. high and low

4. safe and sound

5. back and forth

6. post and parcel

7. day and night

8. bread and butter

9. far and wide

10. By leaps and bounds

11. heart and soul.

12. law and order.

13. tooth and nail.

14. sick and tired.

Exercise B (HOME ASSIGNMENT)

C. Add capital letters and punctuation marks where required and rewrite these sentences correctly.

1. "Your majesty" said the horse trader to Krishnadevaraya, "I have some fine Arabian horses for you."

2. "I want to buy all the horses," said ~~the~~ the King. "Here are 5000 ~~got~~ gold coins."

3. "Thank you, your majesty. I will deliver the horses next week," said the trader and went away.
4. "Why are you laughing, Tenali Raman?" asked the king.
5. "Forgive me, your Majesty," said Tenali. "I am laughing at you."
6. "Yes, I know, Tenali," said the king, "I should not have paid that man in advance."

GRAMMAR FUN

D. ADD SUITABLE SUBJECTS TO COMPLETE THE SENTENCES:

1. This new lock is very difficult to open.
2. A packet of coins was lying on the road.
3. The teacher's praise has made Sudha

very happy.

4. The girl in the photograph is not clearly visible.

5. Eating in restaurants has become costlier.

6. The dodo disappeared long ago.

E. ADD SUITABLE PREDICATES TO COMPLETE THE SENTENCES :-

1. The cat in our garden looks very hungry.

2. Hemango's bicycle was stolen last night.

3. English grammar is fun when we learn to apply its rules.

4. These stairs are too steep to climb

Page _____

5. The lady in the blue dress is my aunt.

6. Mathru's sweet shop sells delicious pumpkin halwa.

F. Match the subjects with the predicates correctly :-

1. The continuous rain ^(c) is preventing us from going out.

2. The new medicine (d) is costly but very effective.

3. The end of the story (a) will leave you shocked.

4. Temperatures this summer (b) have broken all records.